Registrant. :
-----X

Janssen Biotech, Inc. (“Petitioner”), a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the state of Pennsylvania with a principal place of business at 800 Ridgeview Drive, Horsham, Pennsylvania 19044, believes that it will be damaged by the continued registration on the Principal Register of Registration No. 4,103,919 for the mark REMSIMA for “Pharmaceutical preparations for the treatment of autoimmune diseases and autoimmune disorders” in International Class 5 owned by Celltrion, Inc. (“Registrant”), and hereby petitions to cancel the same pursuant to Section 14(3) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1064(3). As grounds for this petition for cancellation, Petitioner, by its attorneys, Fross Zelnick Lehrman & Zissu, P.C., alleges as follows:

1. Petitioner, a biotechnology company, is part of the Janssen Pharmaceutical Companies of Johnson & Johnson. Petitioner’s business consists of pursuing innovative solutions in the therapeutic areas of immunology, oncology and nephrology. Since its founding more than thirty years ago, Petitioner has developed numerous successful and innovative treatments to improve the health of individuals with serious disease.

2. One of Petitioner's most successful products currently being offered is a drug sold under the mark REMICADE. For fourteen years, REMICADE has been among the most prescribed medications to help those patients suffering from rheumatoid arthritis and other inflammatory diseases. More than one million people in the US alone use REMICADE to help control and alleviate their symptoms.

3. The REMICADE mark has been used in the U.S. by Petitioner or its predecessors continuously for fourteen years in connection with a medication for the treatment of autoimmune diseases and disorders. Today, the REMICADE brand is recognized nationwide as designating pharmaceutical products exclusively from Petitioner. The REMICADE mark is known among doctors and patients throughout the United States and is a trusted mark that is associated exclusively with Petitioner.

4. Over the last fourteen years, Petitioner has spent millions of dollars in educating consumers and the medical community about the benefits of REMICADE and has spent extensive time, energy and resources in connection with research relating to the use of REMICADE and outreach efforts. Since its launch sales of REMICADE in the US alone are in the hundreds of millions of dollars.

5. Petitioner is the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration No. 2,897,697 for the mark REMICADE and design for "pharmaceutical preparations for the treatment of autoimmune diseases and autoimmune disorders" which registration issued October 26, 2004 based on a constructive priority date of March 29, 2002; and U.S. Trademark Registration No. 2,336,754 for REMICADE for "pharmaceutical compositions for treatment of autoimmune diseases and disorders" which registration issued on March 28, 2000 based on constructive priority dating to July 9, 1998. Printouts from the electronic database records of the United States Patent and Trademark Office showing the current status and title of Petitioner's registrations for the REMICADE mark are attached hereto as Exhibit A and are made of record and constitute evidence in this proceeding.

6. Petitioner's two registrations for the REMICADE mark are valid, subsisting and in full force and effect and serve as evidence of Petitioner's exclusive right to use the mark in connection with the goods identified in the registrations as provided by Section 33(b) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1115(b). Further, both Petitioner's registrations have become incontestable under Section 15 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1065, and serve as conclusive evidence of Petitioner's exclusive right to use the REMICADE mark for the listed goods.

7. By virtue of Petitioner's activities under its mark, the REMICADE mark has become instantly recognizable to the public as exclusively denoting Petitioner and its goods and services. As a result of Petitioner's substantial effort and investment on behalf of its brand, the goodwill inherent in the REMICADE mark is an enormously valuable asset of Petitioner.

8. On information and belief, Celltrion, Inc. is a Republic of Korea corporation, with its principal place of business at 13-6, Songdo-dong Yeonsu-gu Inchon 406-840, Republic of Korea.

9. On or about July 27, 2011, Registrant filed Application Serial No. 79/103,135 to register the mark REMSIMA for "Pharmaceutical preparations for the treatment of autoimmune diseases and autoimmune disorders" in International Class 5. In connection with its application for REMSIMA, Registrant claimed a priority date of January 31, 2011, pursuant to Section 66(a) of the Lanham Act.

10. On information and belief, Registrant intends to sell, advertise and promote its REMSIMA product as a biosimilar of and as a substitute for Petitioner's REMICADE product.

11. On information and belief, Registrant intends to use the REMSIMA mark on essentially identical goods that Petitioner provides under REMICADE, used for the same purpose and directed to, promoted to and sold to the identical consumers through identical trade channels.

12. Registrant's claimed priority date for the REMSIMA mark is more than a decade after Petitioner's date of first use of its REMICADE mark and a decade after the REMICADE mark was first registered in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

13. As a matter of law, at the time Registrant applied for its mark, Registrant was on constructive notice of Petitioner's rights in the REMICADE mark based on Petitioner's federal trademark registrations for the same. Further, given that Registrant intends to market its product as a biosimilar of REMICADE, Registrant clearly was on actual notice of Petitioner's prior rights in and to the REMICADE mark as of its filing date, if not earlier.

14. In an attempt to trade on the reputation of Petitioner's goods and to assist in the sale of its product as a substitute for REMICADE, Registrant, on information and belief, intentionally adopted a name designed to be similar to and call to mind Petitioner's product name.

15. On information and belief, Registrant's REMSIMA mark was adopted because it is similar in appearance and sound to Petitioner's mark and immediately conjures up Petitioner's mark.

16. Registrant's REMSIMA mark has the identical prefix "REM" as Petitioner's mark, has the same number of syllables and letters as REMICADE and has the same overall appearance, sound and commercial impression as Petitioner's mark.

17. The continued registration of Registrant's REMSIMA mark is inconsistent with Petitioner's long established rights in the REMICADE trademark as well as inconsistent with Petitioner's statutory grant of exclusivity of use of its registered mark and would harm, damage or destroy Petitioner's investment and goodwill in its mark.

CLAIM FOR RELIEF FOR LIKELIHOOD OF CONFUSION
UNDER 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d)

18. Petitioner repeats and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 17 above as if fully set forth herein.

19. Petitioner's REMICADE mark is exclusively associated with Petitioner and has been used continuously by Petitioner since a date years prior to any date on which Registrant can rely.

20. Registrant's REMSIMA mark incorporates substantial portions and is substantially similar to Petitioner's registered and prior used REMICADE mark and has a similar sound, meaning, appearance and commercial impression to Petitioner's mark.

21. Registrant's registration for the mark sought to be cancelled is for goods identical to those identified in Petitioner's REMICADE registrations. As such, Registrant seeks to use the REMSIMA mark in connection with goods made available to those who use or are familiar with Petitioner's products offered under the REMICADE mark.

22. By virtue of Petitioner's longstanding use of the REMICADE mark and the goodwill associated with the mark, the continued registration by Registrant of the REMSIMA mark is likely to cause confusion or to cause mistake or to deceive the public into mistakenly believing that Registrant's goods offered under the REMSIMA mark originate from, come from or are otherwise associated with Petitioner, or that Registrant's goods are endorsed, licensed, or sponsored by or in some way connected with Petitioner, in violation of Section 2(d) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1052(d).

23. By reason of the foregoing, Petitioner is likely to be harmed by continued registration of the mark REMSIMA shown in Registration No. 4,103,919.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that this petition for cancellation be sustained and that U.S. Registration No. 4,103,919 be cancelled. The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board is hereby authorized to charge the petition filing fee of $300 to cancel the registration in Class 5 to Petitioner's counsel's deposit Account Number 30426424.
